

First Responder Courses

29/12/2024 to 2/1/2025

Place: Bayt-Al-Dhiyafah - Hamad Medical City

Timing: 4:00-8:00pm

Target Group: High school and university students

Number of Trainees:45 Trainees

Training Hours: 25 Credit Hours

Certificate: Accredited by HITC- HMC

Provided By: HITC in collaboration with HPAP.

Training Type: Theoretical and practical using global training standards.

Objectives of the Workshop:

- Identify and manage how to deal with emergencies –as first responder to an emergency
- Identify and measure how CPR works.
- Recognition and training in providing first aid
- Identify and train on how to deal with disasters at the disaster site
- Community capacity development-through preparedness

of individuals to respond to emergencies and disasters

The Main Axes of the Workshop:

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Ambulance System | 8. Evaluate the first responder to the patient |
| 2. Maintain the integrity of the respondent | 9. Emergency illness |
| 3. Legal and Ethical issues | 10. Nervous and Motor Injuries |
| 4. Anatomy of the human body | 11. Bleeding and infections of connective tissues |
| 5. Lift and Transfer Patients | 12. Infant assistants |
| 6. Industrial Ventilators | 13. Ambulance response stages |
| 7. Blood circulation and shock device | |

To Communicate:

HMC -Ms. Balqees Al Khazraji – 44395226 , Email : BALkhazraji@hamad.qa

Balqis AL Khazraji

Director of Medical professions Awareness Program of Health Professions and Volunteer Program

Hamad Medical Corporation

To register, please visit us at our office at Hamad Medical City - Building 318 – 3rd Floor

from Sunday to Thursday from 8 am to 2 pm